“ My mom finally admitted he is likely my father. They dated for quite a while in the 80s and were married very briefly in the 90s. My mom introduced him to the church. Apparently he knew I was likely his child and his mother suspected I was. My mom said the last time she saw him he came up to her job and apologized for how he treated her. She never saw him after that. I kept putting off looking him up and when I did I see this. Condolences to the family.

“ My condolences to the family. No one is ever totally prepared for the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain can seem unbearable. May you find comfort in the words of Jesus "I am the resurrection and the life."-John 11:25
