“ *Dear Family of Pastor John Dewey Davis
Although, I was not personally acquainted with Pastor John Dewey Davis, please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your dear love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a family can face. . At times the loss may be unbearable. I would also like to take this opportunity to share some encouraging words from God's word, the Bible. Likely you have asked such question as, "Will suffering and pain ever come to an end?" The answer is yes and in the near future. The Bible at Psalm 37:11 says that the meek ones will possess the earth and have an abundance of peace. Death is one of the major causes of sadness and it robs us of our peace. Also at Ps. 37:verse 9 said that For evil men will be done away with,.God assures us that soon death will be no more, It will be done away with according to Revelation 21:4, we will never have to say good-bye to our loved ones in death again.). May you keep cherishing loving memories of laughter and times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. We all look forward to the time when God "will long for the work of his hands" Job 14:7, 14, 15 May Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4); comfort you in your time of need.*
