“ *Dear Maxey Family,
You have our greatest love and sympathy as our Lord as taken John Maxey to Heaven, the beautiful home that we all desire to live in each after life on earth serving GOD.
John Maxey was my Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Brother who stood high in my career choice as a promoter of music.
I got my early start in the record and radio business in 1976. Brother Maxey and the late Michael Orr's title cut on "Spread Love album" (featuring "Feelings") worked with my mentor Larry Allen to get the records played in Detroit's WJZZ and into the wholesale and retail stores. God bless Rosetta Hines who played our music consistently. John encouraged me to stay the course when the hit records were few.
In God we trust!
Michael "Tiger" Price, Delta Nu Chapter Alumni Association, pledged to instruct our students in careers today.*
