JHR's Obituary:

John Henry Robinson Jr. was born to Mr. John Henry Robinson Sr. and Ms. Lovie Olivia Green on May 13, 1928 in Memphis, Tennessee. He was the first child born in this union. John received his early education in the Booker T. Washington High School system.

John accepted Christ into his life at an early age. Marrying his high school sweetheart, Clara Lee Hampton on June 10, 1948. To that union 2 sons Roland and Ronald were born.

After graduating from high school and starting his family, John enlisted into the Coast Guard for 4 years after which he received an honorable discharge. After leaving the military in Staten Island, New York, John and his family moved to Detroit, Michigan to begin his career of 30 plus years with the Cadillac Motor Car Division of General Motors. John worked in many different capacities. John worked as an assembler, a relief man and repairman to name a few. John was known for being outspoken when it came to something that he believed in. John was offered a supervisor's position, but Clara told him he better not because management just wanted to fire his ass!

Mom and Dad's home was the gathering place for friends and family alike. We would meet on Fridays and fry fish, play cards, laugh, talk and enjoy each other's company.
