

Mr. John Savage,, Sr.

March 8, 1945 - March 17, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of John Savage, Sr.

John Savage, Sr. was born in Marion, Alabama on March 8, 1945. He accepted Christ at an early age and attended Oakgrove Methodist Church in Marion. He graduated from Lincoln High and served in the US Army for two years.

John moved to Detroit in search of a good job. He was hired at GM Pontiac Motors. John retired in 1993 with 31 years of credited service. With four years of bonus time he retired at the ripe young age of 48 years old. He was never one to sit still and worked at three other jobs until 2011.

John was known to be very "dapper," loved to wear hats, jewelry, big hair, and mustaches. He loved cars and would spend hours cleaning and shining his cars. He loved to travel and take trips back home to Alabama. He and his family traveled coast to coast by train, planes and cars. He loved his children. Although he only had one brother here in Detroit "Lee," he was also close to his brothers-in-law and their families.

After a two year battle with an illness he was called home, and born into eternity on March 17, 2016.

At the gates of Heaven, he has his father, mother, sisters Mary Morgan, Daisy

Bell Norfleet and brother Walter Lee Savage to welcome him to his heavenly home.

“ Thanks dad for 50 years. To start a family and a new career at GM at 21 years of age was a big deal in 1966. Thanks for the best Christmas I can remember as a kid in 1975.I wish we had more time , for me you and Reggie to hit Burger King on a Thursday evening , or Palmer park to toss around the baseball while we waited for moms to leave choir practice at church .No more pain ,you fought a good fight, I commend you for that! thanks again for life, John jr
