“ My Grand Daughter Jazzmine was very lucky to have you in her life. I remember going over to the tiree shop and you always were a very nice man with a big smile. Willing to help a man who needed some help. We need more true men in this world. Setting that positive example that both boys and girls need. Take a bow for a job well done and rest in peace. You have earned it.

“ Daddy, I love and will always love you so much. You taught us so much about life, love, family, business and how to treat people in general. You ingrained this into us and we ingrained it into our children. I will miss coming over after work each day and looking in your pots to see what you cooked. I will miss you telling me about all the news stories on the day from what was happening overseas to what's going on with Kim and Kanye. I will miss you telling me that I need to wash my car and armorall my tires. I will miss listening to Bobby Blue Bland and Johnnie Taylor with you. I will miss coming over and seeing you at the sink eating fig newtons. I will miss showing you silly videos on YouTube. I will miss saying to you each time I left, "I love you daddy" and then hearing you say back to me, "I love you too baby". And this was the last words we had with each other and I will always cherish my 40 years with you. I am so proud to be your daughter, you are an amazing man. Rest daddy.

“ Uncle John was my favorite uncle. I spent several weekends as a child over their house. It felt like a second home. I was invited on family trips several times & was treated like one of their own children. My son (Michael) loved talking to uncle John, he told Michael that he should become a preacher. That's the kind of man he was, he saw good on people. The way he treated me as a child &the positive words he gave Michael will live with us forever. You'll be truly missed uncle John.

“ I remember John kindly, and how as a young kid, he took time to treat me like a person, who had real feelings.

John will be missed - but he has left a strong and good memory in our hearts.

Aunt Catherine, you and your children are in our prayers.

Kenneth
