

Mr. Johnnie Hardrick

September 17, 1933 - August 16, 2016

Going Home Celebration For Johnnie Hardrick:

On September 17, 1933 Johnnie Hardrick was born to Clarence and Daisy Hardrick in Hernando, Mississippi.

Johnnie accepted Christ at the young age of 11 years and was baptized at Dean Hill Baptist Church in Hernando, Mississippi. This was the beginning of his Christian journey. In May of 1950, Johnnie graduated from high school in Desoto County, Mississippi and soon after moved to Detroit, Michigan and married the love of his life, Ruby D. Tate, a union that lasted for 52 years until her death in June of 2008. From this union they had four children:

Gregory, Victor, Sandra, and Tonya.

Johnnie believed in sacrificing to provide for and take care of his family. Hard work, acquiring a skilled trade or advanced education were the principles that Johnnie lived by and instilled in his children, family members and others as well. His education included receiving a degree in Retail and Marketing Management from WCCCD in 1972 and continually renewed his licenses at Middleton Real Estate School. The span of his working career included becoming a business owner (Pic, Pac Supermarket), Real Estate Agent, Licensed Journeyman (UFCW) and a Regional District Manager for Borman Bros. Inc (Farmer Jack).

Johnnie was ordained as a deacon at City View Missionary Church (1968) under Rev. Nathaniel Taylor. He served as a deacon until his passing on August 16, 2016. Our dad enjoyed bike riding, cookouts at Belle Isle Park, reading, socializing and sharing the word of God.

Our Dad was never afraid to let his light shine. He knew that THRU CHRIST all things are possible.
