

Mr. Johnny Green

May 8, 1942 - August 20, 2021

In Loving Memory Of

Johnny Green was born on May 8, 1942 in Tuskegee, Alabama to Willie Sam and Johnnie Mae Green-Grant, who preceded him in death.

Johnny accepted Christ at an early age. Johnny was the eldest of eight children.

He graduated from Northwestern High School in 1961 where he played in the band, he played the saxophone.

On June 1, 1964 he joined the Air Force. He served until November 28, 1966 with a honorable discharge.

Johnny was a Dapper-Dan man. He loved luxury cars and motorcycles. His hobbies were playing his saxophone, carpentry, listening to Jazz music and having fun, and he loved to laugh.

In January 1986 Johnny was introduced to Debra. Together they became longtime companions over 35 years. They loved to travel, go to live concerts and events and enjoyed going to the park. They always liked to ballroom dance.

Debra took care of Johnny when he became ill until he departed. (Johnny chose Debra to take care of him.) Debra loved Johnny. He will forever be in her heart.

Johnny was preceded in death by his parents, Willie Sam and Johnnie Mae Grant; his brothers and sister, Calvin, Dennis, Dwayne, twins Phillip and Phyllis Grant.

He leaves to cherish his memories: daughters, Johnetta, Robin and Tamika; sons, Lawrence and Shawn; his sisters, Audrey and Eleanor; best friend, Debra; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends.
