“ Johnny and I have been friends since Superman drawers. Living across the street, we faced life and death together. Now we face death and life apart. While he always maintained his tough guy posture, his heart was gentle, pure and golden. He was my friend, my brother, my best man, my quarterback and I am proud to say, I loved the man. King of the FunkMob, Colonel of the Lightning Lords, Detroit will never be the same to me. There is an enormous hole in my heart that, as of yet, I cannot bear to face. Fair winds and following seas, Kemosabe. We'll run that Tight End Quicky to perfection, once we meet again.

Kendall and I are deeply saddened by the loss of our brother-in-law, Johnny. The two of you loved spending time with family and friends, and made sure everyone felt welcome. Thank you for the love and joy you brought to our family. May you rest well in the bosom of our Lord. Till we meet again.

“ Dear Joyce,
There is no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. You and Johnny seemed to be joined at the hip. You both loved to host family and friends at your home, and made sure everyone felt welcome. The bond you shared can never be broken. Death may come, but LOVE lives forever! Johnny's calm and kind spirit will be deeply missed. Love you my sister dear.
