

Mr. Johnny Frank McNeal

February 16, 1945 - April 9, 2024

Johnny Frank McNeal was born on February 16, 1945 to Oliver McNeal and Addie Lee Payne. He has two brothers, Otis (the oldest) and Anthony Jerome (the youngest) Oliver, Addie and Otis preceded Johnny in death.

Johnny was educated in Bryant, Florida graduating high school. He served honorably in the United States Army and the National Guard. Johnny met the love of his life Evelyn Motley in Patterson, New Jersey in 1967. To their loving union was born their daughter Stephanie. Johnny was a devoted and loving father and was proud to see Stephanie grow to become a mature and productive adult.

In Johnny's journeys, he moved to W.V. in 1975, where he worked as a coalminer from 1975 to 1978. He later moved his family to Detroit, Michigan in late 1978, where he began to work at Ford Motor Company retiring in 2008. Johnny enjoyed his retirement spending time fishing, traveling, visiting local casinos, listening to music, being sarcastic, relaxing with his loving family.

Johnny departed peacefully in his home with his loving and devoted wife by his side. He leaves to cherish a host of in-laws, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends that he enjoyed and loved dearly.
