“ Doc as we called him was my boss at Pattengill from 1974-1987. He was very supportive and flexible. He helped me get promoted to assistant principal at another school. It was hard for me to leave Pattengill in 1987 because the staff worked so well together. Rest In Peace, Neil Manley

“ Dr. Redditt was the best! He always let you do your thing as long as it made sense to him. I was the special education teacher and had students with many challenges. Dr. Redditt would look at me, shake his head, & said I don't know what you did to turn certain students around, but keep up the good work. May he Rest In Peace as he watches over from above. His foot prints are in the sand. Dana Lawrence (special education teacher)

“ He was one of the first strong images of a Black man in my life. Tall. Commanding. Impressive. Compassionate. He was like a second father in 48204 to us kids. May he travel well! Just a kid from the 'hood in Detroit who made good.

“ "Dr. Redditt was a principal who allowed you to 'do your thing.' When I came up with ideas for the guidance program, he said, 'go for it.' He set a tone at Pattengill of happiness, acceptance and professionalism. The staff followed suit because of his example. We had a 'family' at Pattengill. We had parties outside of the Pattengill Building and took out of town trips. He referred to our Pattengill Family as his CAMELOT. Even after Pattengill closed and most of us retired, we still had get togethers, or reunions, because that's what families do. We will all miss Doc, our Pattengill leader. I send sympathy to the Redditt family for your loss and will continue to keep you all in prayer."
