“ I met Joe when we were flight instructors at Grosse Ile flight service in the late 1970s. We were all young flight instructors trying to build flight time to move on. We spent many hours together at the airport hanging out. Later in life I reconnected with Joe on face book and kept in touch that way. Joe was a great guy who will be truly missed. RIP my friend and keep the greasy side down.✈️ Ronald Skudlarek

“ So sorry to hear that Joe passed. I first met him in 1963 when our family moved in on Minerva Street. Long time friends during our young school years, street football, bike rides, flashlight tag at Minerva Court in front of his home. Years later I heard his name again as he graduated with my husband in the Aviation Program at WMU. So many moves and many years later everyone separates and loses touch but when you hear this news the sadness is felt but the memories bring that little smile when we take the time to appreciate the childhood years we had together. I am told by friends he had a great life, a family filled with adventures along the way. Please accept our condolences, Joe's old Minerva Street Childhood Friends.

May he rest in peace. Diane (Johnson) Thomas.

“ I was a classmate of Joe's at John Glenn High. Joe was a very affable and popular student. He was a graceful diver on the swim team as well. We were able to spend a few days of golf together in Arizona while Joe was living here. We kept in touch during the past several years. He was always upbeat. Joe relished his friendships with Matt Wensko and Dr Tom Bird—fellow Rockets. So long old friend. Now you can rest easy.
