

Mr. Joseph Hogan

August 20, 1936 - October 30, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Joseph Hogan's life began on Thursday, August 20, 1936, in Roe, Arkansas. He went to be with the Lord on October 30, 2021. He was one of 11 siblings born to the late Ferrell and Lillie Hogan. In 1953, he moved to Detroit, Michigan and attend Emmanuel Catholic High School. Joe started working in a glove factory and soon after he started working at Sears & Roebuck Co. During his employment with Sears, he began to work for General Motors and American Axle for 30 years, until his retirement. It was during his employment with Sears, Joe met and fell in love with Mary E. Myers. The two were joined in holy matrimony for 48 years.

In his retirement, to stay healthy and active he would rise early and walk around the track at Mumford High School. He also began to work at a local convenience store.

Joe's life should be celebrated and remembered as one filled with kindness, gentleness, and the love for his family and friends. He enjoyed bowling, walking, and spending time with his family. He loved traveling back to Arkansas, with his brother Benjamin and niece Patricia. He also enjoyed family trips and events with his wife Mary, and "in-laws." He would get together every weekend, with his siblings to, talk, eat, and play cards. In his later years he adored "facetime" with his grandkids. To know Joe, was to know a man who was giving, happy, joking and to always have a smile on his face. He was preceded in death by parents, Ferrell, and Lillie Hogan; two sisters,

Wilda Wofford, and Mildred Hogan; five brothers, Earnest, Benjamin, Ferrell, Donald, and Rufus; nephew, DeAngelo Hogan; niece, Mildred Charletta Varner, and sister-in-law, Roselene Charlene Myers Darty.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Mary Hogan; sons, Royce Shye and Charles Dywayne Hogan; daughter, Felicia. Loving siblings, brothers Charlie, Gabe and sister Birdie Jean; loving daughter-in-law, Anna Marie (Charles) Hogan; granddaughters, Allison Jackson, Alana, and Micah Taylor, Ni' Aryia Hall; grandsons, Gregory Taylor, Kenneth and Steven Saunders, Royce Jr., Fred Shye, Simeon Amir Joseph Hogan; great-granddaughters, Amelia and Celenia Taylor; special loving nieces, Patricia (Trish), Monique (Darryl), Tonja, Kristal, Ashely Varner, Amber (Justin) Edwards; nephews, Marcus Coleman, Michael Benson and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Joseph leaves an indelible legacy that can never be replaced, and the beautiful memories will forever be embedded in our hearts. Joseph Hogan's life began on Thursday, August 20, 1936, in Roe, Arkansas. He went to be with the Lord on October 30, 2021. He was one of 11 siblings born to the late Ferrell and Lillie Hogan. In 1953, he moved to Detroit, Michigan and attend Emmanuel Catholic High School. Joe started working in a glove factory and soon after he started working at Sears & Roebuck Co.

During his employment with Sears, he began to work for General Motors and American Axle for 30 years, until his retirement. It was during his employment with Sears, Joe met and fell in love with Mary E. Myers. The two were joined in holy matrimony for 48 years.

In his retirement, to stay healthy and active he would rise early and walk around the track at Mumford High School. He also began to work at a local convenience store.

Joe's life should be celebrated and remembered as one filled with kindness, gentleness, and the love for his family and friends. He enjoyed bowling, walking, and spending time with his family. He loved traveling back to Arkansas, with his brother Benjamin and niece Patricia. He also enjoyed family trips and events with his wife Mary, and "in-laws." He would get together every weekend, with his siblings to, talk, eat, and play cards. In his later years he adored "facetime" with his grandkids. To know Joe, was to know a man who was giving, happy, joking and to always have a smile on his face. He was preceded in death by parents, Ferrell, and Lillie Hogan; two sisters, Wilda Wofford, and Mildred Hogan; five brothers, Earnest, Benjamin, Ferrell, Donald, and Rufus; nephew, DeAngelo Hogan; niece, Mildred Charletta Varner, and sister-in-law, Roselene Charlene Myers Darty.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Mary Hogan; sons, Royce Shye and Charles Dywayne Hogan; daughter, Felicia. Loving siblings, brothers Charlie, Gabe and sister Birdie Jean; loving daughter-in-law, Anna Marie (Charles) Hogan; granddaughters, Allison Jackson, Alana, and Micah Taylor, Ni' Aryia Hall; grandsons, Gregory Taylor, Kenneth and Steven Saunders, Royce Jr., Fred Shye, Simeon Amir Joseph Hogan; great-granddaughters, Amelia and Celenia Taylor; special loving nieces, Patricia (Trish), Monique (Darryl), Tonja, Kristal, Ashely Varner, Amber (Justin) Edwards; nephews, Marcus Coleman, Michael Benson and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Joseph leaves an indelible legacy that can never be replaced, and the beautiful memories will forever be embedded in our hearts. Joseph Hogan's life began on Thursday, August 20, 1936, in Roe, Arkansas. He went to be with the Lord on October 30, 2021. He was one of 11 siblings born to the late Ferrell and Lillie Hogan. In 1953, he moved to Detroit, Michigan and attend Emmanuel Catholic High School. Joe started working in a glove factory and soon after he started working at Sears & Roebuck Co.

During his employment with Sears, he began to work for General Motors and American Axle for 30 years, until his retirement. It was during his employment with Sears, Joe met and fell in love with Mary E. Myers. The two were joined in holy matrimony for 48 years.

In his retirement, to stay healthy and active he would rise early and walk around the track at Mumford High School. He also began to work at a local convenience store.

Joe's life should be celebrated and remembered as one filled with kindness, gentleness, and the love for his family and friends. He enjoyed bowling, walking, and spending time with his family. He loved traveling back to Arkansas, with his brother Benjamin and niece Patricia. He also enjoyed family trips and events with his wife Mary, and "in-laws." He would get together every weekend, with his siblings to, talk, eat, and play cards. In his later years he adored "facetime" with his grandkids. To know Joe, was to know a man who was giving, happy, joking and to always have a smile on his face. He was preceded in death by parents, Ferrell, and Lillie Hogan; two sisters, Wilda Wofford, and Mildred Hogan; five brothers, Earnest, Benjamin, Ferrell, Donald, and Rufus; nephew, DeAngelo Hogan; niece, Mildred Charletta Varner, and sister-in-law, Roselene Charlene Myers Darty.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Mary Hogan; sons, Royce Shye and Charles Dywayne Hogan; daughter, Felicia. Loving siblings, brothers Charlie, Gabe and sister Birdie Jean; loving daughter-in-law, Anna Marie (Charles) Hogan; granddaughters, Allison Jackson, Alana, and Micah Taylor, Ni' Aryia Hall; grandsons, Gregory Taylor, Kenneth and Steven Saunders, Royce Jr., Fred Shye, Simeon Amir Joseph Hogan; great-granddaughters, Amelia and Celenia Taylor; special loving nieces, Patricia (Trish), Monique (Darryl), Tonja, Kristal, Ashely Varner, Amber (Justin) Edwards; nephews, Marcus Coleman, Michael Benson and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Joseph leaves an indelible legacy that can never be replaced, and the beautiful memories will forever be embedded in our hearts. Joseph Hogan's life began on Thursday, August 20, 1936, in Roe, Arkansas. He went to be with the Lord on October 30, 2021. He was one of 11 siblings born to the late Ferrell and Lillie Hogan. In 1953, he moved to Detroit, Michigan and attend Emmanuel Catholic High School. Joe started working in a glove factory and soon after he started working at Sears & Roebuck Co.

During his employment with Sears, he began to work for General Motors and American Axle for 30 years, until his retirement. It was during his employment with Sears, Joe met and fell in love with Mary E. Myers. The two were joined in holy matrimony for 48 years.

In his retirement, to stay healthy and active he would rise early and walk around the track at Mumford High School. He also began to work at a local convenience store.

Joe's life should be celebrated and remembered as one filled with kindness, gentleness, and the love for his family and friends. He enjoyed bowling, walking, and spending time with his family. He loved traveling back to Arkansas, with his brother Benjamin and niece Patricia. He also enjoyed family trips and events with his wife Mary, and "in-laws." He would get together every weekend, with his siblings to, talk, eat, and play cards. In his later years he adored "facetime" with his grandkids. To know Joe, was to know a man who was giving, happy, joking and to always have a smile on his face. He was preceded in death by parents, Ferrell, and Lillie Hogan; two sisters, Wilda Wofford, and Mildred Hogan; five brothers, Earnest, Benjamin, Ferrell, Donald, and Rufus; nephew, DeAngelo Hogan; niece, Mildred Charletta Varner, and sister-in-law, Roselene Charlene Myers Darty.

He will be deeply missed by his wife, Mary Hogan; sons, Royce Shye and Charles Dywayne Hogan; daughter, Felicia. Loving siblings, brothers Charlie, Gabe and sister Birdie Jean; loving daughter-in-law, Anna Marie (Charles) Hogan; granddaughters, Allison Jackson, Alana, and Micah Taylor, Ni' Aryia Hall; grandsons, Gregory Taylor, Kenneth and Steven Saunders, Royce Jr., Fred Shye, Simeon Amir Joseph Hogan; great-granddaughters, Amelia and Celenia Taylor; special loving nieces, Patricia (Trish), Monique (Darryl), Tonja, Kristal, Ashely Varner, Amber (Justin) Edwards; nephews, Marcus Coleman, Michael Benson and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Joseph leaves an indelible legacy that can never be replaced, and the beautiful memories will forever be embedded in our hearts.

Cemetery Details

Mt. Hope Memorial Gardens

17840 Middlebelt Road
Livonia, MI 48152

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. Joseph Hogan

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Vickie Hampton lit a candle in memory of Mr. Joseph Hogan

Vickie hampton - November 12, 2021 at 03:39 PM

“ From the Boyd family we are sorry to hear that Joe has gone on to heaven he was a great neighbor and a friend to our family we left his family so much we will continue to pray for his entrance into heaven and for his family with much love and affection the Boyd family

Vickie hampton - November 12, 2021 at 03:35 PM

“ Vickie Hampton lit a candle in memory of Mr. Joseph Hogan

Vickie hampton - November 11, 2021 at 07:28 PM

VH

“ I'm so sorry to hear about our neighbor JoJo that's what I used to call him Joseph Hogan and his family Eileen all the sisters Charlene Eileen sisters and my friend charletta. I love them so much and I was so shocked to hear that Joe had died he was always very nice to me and my family we live right next door I'm sorry I can't make it to see him out but he will always be in my prayers and his wife and Boys 2. I love them and I'm going to miss Joe my prayers go out to the family

Vickie hampton - November 11, 2021 at 07:26 PM

“ Full Of Love Bouquet was purchased for the family of Mr. Joseph Hogan.

November 10, 2021 at 04:28 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Mr. Joseph Hogan.

November 07, 2021 at 07:16 PM

MS

“ We are so very sorry to hear about the passing of Joe. Our hearts and prayers go out to Eleane and the family.

*Michael and Paula Smith and Family
Kalamazoo, Michigan
Kalamazoo, Michigan*

Michael Smith - November 07, 2021 at 02:53 PM

“ Emerald Garden Basket was purchased for the family of Mr. Joseph Hogan.

November 04, 2021 at 11:17 PM