“ I can remember hanging out at uncle Joe's house around 4th of July time. He always had more than enough. It was a joyful time. My mom Ethel Miller loved her baby brother, I remember them on the phone all the time, and I would always find that time to say hi to my uncle. Mom loved her brother. Having my youngest son my mom helped me name him, and we named him Joseph, after my uncle. Love you uncle Joe and you will truly be missed.
