“ Bro Joe was family. He was close to my family (Hunt and Barker), and he will truly be missed. He was a precious gem. He put the "Cool" in "Cool Ushers", and his spirit will live on through his family and the Greater Love Tabernacle Church Family. We could always count on him to support you and any event at GLT. Bro Joe Rest In Peace! Love Karen Hunt-Barker and Elder Kenny Barker.

“ To my Granddaddy you was a phenomenal husband to my Grandma Jan a phenomenal Father to all your kids a Phenomenal Grandfather and Great Grandfather. I'm going to miss every memory that we cherished with each other I'm going to miss you calling me your PopCorn Honey I'm going to miss hearing you say I'm 24/7 I'm going to miss hearing the click clacks and steps and glide from your feet while walking on your cane. I'm going to miss your dancing to your favorite song the Cupid Shuffle. I'll never forget that you always said you watch your first set of kids grow up I watch my second set of kids grow up now I'm on my third set I had 34years of life with you Granddaddy and all I can say I'm so happy and proud to call you my Grandfather I'm so proud of you because you was always their for me shown me love etc....It was always said that nobody can't break your heart unless you loose your Father or Grandfather and my heart is broken and shattered into a million pieces but hey your still in my heart I never forget how you made sure I had my favorite drink at your house in the ice box your garage my Ohanas. Wheeping may be endureth through the night but my Joy cometh in the morning so instead of me thinking about your transition out it's the time to celebrate your legacy and life that you shared amoungs us. Fly high Granddaddy you put on this fight long enough you tried to hold on for us but GOD says otherwised your free Granddaddy nomore pain nomore suffering your free and that I say Thank You. I'll see you one day and when I do we can catch up on old times

Love Always your PopCorn Honey

“ Rip to my Granddaddy he was a phenomenal husband father grandfather and great grandfather I'm going to truly miss him calling me Pop Corn Honey I am built up with so many emotions right now shock about how he left us so soon. It was always said not body can't really break your heart but your Father or Grandfather my heart is broken and shattered into a million poeces. I'll never forget how he always said he was going to live pass 100 if the lord says other wised. He even said I done seen my set of kids grow up I done seen my second set of kids grow up and how he was determined too see his third set of grandkids grow up I'm going to miss every memory that we shared with each other he was my motivator my Granddaddy was everything too me he was the best Granddaddy that I ever had and I'm going to cherished that. I have my moments where I break down and cry my heart is heavy but I'm happy he's no longer suffering he was a fighter and he was determined to hold on but God said other wised. I'm going to miss him drinking on them Pepsi I'm going to miss hearing the click clacks from his cane I'm going to miss him coming over every other day visiting me and my daughter's I'm going to miss him saying I'm 24/7. Wheeping may endureth through the night but my Joy cometh in the morning. So instead of me crying over his transition out I should be thinking about all the good memories we shared together. Fly high my Granddaddy I will see you one day and when I do we can catch up on old times but in the meantime you are reunited with your mother father brothers aunties uncle's friends etc....fly high Granddaddy and enjoy all your Pepsi's up in Heaven.

Love Always your second born Granddaughter
