

Mr. Joseph Timothy Williams

September 29, 1943 - July 12, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Joseph Timothy Williams was born September 29, 1943, in Detroit, Michigan to the parents of Rufus Fred Williams and Janie Bell Martin-Williams.

Joseph, also lovingly known as Tim, was the tenth of fourteen children.

Joseph attended McMichaels Middle School and North Western High School.

At a young age, Joseph enlisted in the United States Army.

Joseph was a manager at the Masonic Temple and a Jack of all trades for 40 years. Joseph enjoyed being a volunteer counselor for Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). Joseph had a special gift for helping others.

In his spare time, Joseph enjoyed being a high roller at Motor City Casino and meeting up with his Casino Crew. Joseph was a part of a great Casino Crew, if one was short on funds the others would have your back. Joseph also loved playing the lottery. The highlights of Joseph's life were going to his son Tim Tim's football games and spending time with family and friends.

In 1968, Joseph went on to marry Alberta Louise Manuel and to this union was born Lashon Louise Williams in 1969. Joseph was also blessed with five sons, Tyrone Long, Joseph Keelan, Dale Moore, Kale Moore, and Joseph (Tim Tim) Williams Jr.

On July 12, 2024, God decided to call Joseph home. He leaves to cherish his memories his daughter Lashon; sons Tyrone, Joseph, Dale, Kale, and Tim Tim; his siblings Alfred, Margaret, Phyllis, Helen, and Wymell.

Joseph was preceded in death by his parents Rufus and Janie Williams; siblings Geraldine, Ruby Jean, Muriel, Ernest, Dennis, Kenneth, Hershel, and Randy.

Joseph also leaves to cherish his grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
