

Mrs. Josephine Johnson

January 8, 1934 - June 28, 2013

Josephine Johnson was born in Haddock, Georgia on January 8, 1934 to the late Joseph Dennis Sr. and Mattie Bell Dennis. At an early age her family moved to Clearwater, Florida where she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was raised and educated in the Clearwater Public School system.

Josephine met and married Sylvester Johnson, Sr. in 1956. In 1966, they moved to Detroit, Michigan which she became a member of Liberty Baptist Church. She worked at Cambridge Nursing Home for over ten years as a nursing assistant. She was an avid Detroit Tigers fan. She also enjoyed playing cards "bid whist."

Josephine will be loved and remembered as an unselfish, non-judgmental, good natured, humorous, and gentle spirit who was forgiving of others and not quick to anger. Also, she had a strong spirit. In the grief of losing two of her daughters, she will remind the family "it's the cycle life we all will experience." She left a legacy; "to pursue on with the grace and strength of God, you WILL feel the positive side of a bad situation."

She departed this life on June 28, 2013
