

Mrs. Joyce Jean Clark

January 16, 1948 - December 18, 2013

The Life Of Joyce Jean Clark:

Joyce Jean Clark was born to Elisha and Carrie Anderson on January 16, 1948 in Gordon, Georgia. Joyce was the sixth of eight children.

Joyce married Bennie Clark on February 28, 1970 and to their union one son Raushimi Auasi Clark was born.

Joyce graduated from Mackenzie High School in 1966 and attended McNamara Center where she graduated with a degree in Business Communications.

After receiving her degree, she worked at Ameritech, formerly known as Michigan Bell. Joyce was a dedicated employee until retirement in 2000.

Joyce was known for her enduring and lasting love of her husband, son and family. She was also known for her love of shopping, appearance, sewing and being associated with family gatherings.

Joyce felt it a privilege and appreciable love for Jehovah God and attended South Redford Congregation. She remained passionate about her love for Jehovah, despite her many illnesses, until her untimely death.

Joyce's parents, five brothers have all preceded her in death. Joyce Clark passed away on December 18, 2013.

“ Williambrown850@yahoo.com Extending heartfelt condolences to the family for your loss., and while I cannot begin to comprehend what you are going through, I do know there is no greater pain than that of losing a family member. Keep Cherishing loving memories of laughter and times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. God assures us that soon death will be no more. (Revelation 21:4), There is hope even for a tree. If it is cut down, it will spout again” If a man dies, can he live again? At Acts 24:15 it holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death.

May Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4); comfort you in your time of need. Sorry for your loss, we all look forward to the time when God “will long for the work of his hands” Job 14:7, 14, 15.k
