

Mrs. Joyce Fay Glenn

September 1, 1942 - October 24, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Joyce F. Glenn began her earthly journey on September 1, 1942, in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, to the late Joseph Leon Mayberry, Sr. and Vacie Bell Mayberry. When she was three years of age, the Mayberry family migrated from the south to Detroit, Michigan, the world's automobile capital. While in Michigan, an additional six brothers were born into the family, bringing the total to eight: seven boys and one girl. Being the second oldest, Joyce was known and operated as her brother's second mother. She was granted full authority to maintain order and discipline and was judicious in her approach and execution.

In Detroit, Joyce began her Christian journey under the ministry of the late Reverend Cornell E. Talley at New Light Baptist Church. Later in life, she continued her Christian pilgrimage under the stewardship of Bishop David L. Ellis and Charles H. Ellis III at Greater Grace Temple. Joyce graduated from Northwestern High School (Detroit, MI) in May 1960. She pursued a career in the medical billing arena and remained in this field for the better portion of her career. In 1963, she met and married Edgar Glenn, and from their union, three daughters were born: Vanita, Jenise, and Ebony. They were married for 47 years until his death in 2011.

Joyce was known for being a guardian angel while on earth. She was the bedrock for her children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, brothers, sisters-in-law, and friends, and she was an active participant in our lives and activities. There are countless stories about her over arching generosity in times of need. She left a footprint of love in everyone's life.

Joyce made her transition on October 24, 2022, after a prolonged battle with Dementia and Alzheimer's.
