

Mrs. Juanita Carter

October 25, 1922 - October 5, 2018

Her Story:

Juanita Carter was born on October 25, 1922 in Harrison County, Kentucky to the union of Oliver and Ethel Jones. She was preceded in death by her husband, William Carter; two children, Elton and Karen Carter; a grandson, Taiwan; and two brothers, James Earl and Joseph Oliver Jones.

Juanita made her transition to her eternal home to be with her Heavenly Father, finally receiving rest for her soul, on October 5, 2018.

Juanita accepted Christ at very early age, under the late Rev. Jackson at Phillips Chapel CME Church, in Paris, Kentucky.

Juanita was a graduate of Western High School in Paris, Kentucky; and an alumnus of Fugazzi Business School in Lexington, Kentucky.

Juanita met and married the love of her life, William Carter and moved to Detroit, Michigan where she continued to live and support the same community for over 60 years on Dailey Street. She dedicated her life to serving God and her family; she truly was the epitome of a virtuous woman. HER FAMILY CAME FIRST and everyone knew it. She did what God told her to do as in Proverb 31; she was a courageous wife, mother, and grandmother and she did it with pride, style and dignity. She had a special love for giving. At Christmas you were guaranteed to have homemade brownies and peppermints wrapped in a tin can.
