In Remembrance of Our Beloved Juanita Cain-Coleman:

Juanita Cain-Coleman was born on May 31, 1952 in Detroit, MI to Alice Brinson and Roger Cain. Juanita was educated in the Detroit Public School system, graduating from Murray Wright High School. After completing high school, Juanita attended Wayne County Community College where she earned a degree as a Registered Nurse. Juanita worked for a number of years in various healthcare settings, but spent most of her career working at Herman Kiefer for the City of Detroit's Health Department which she retired from in 2015.

Juanita accepted Christ early in life. She was joined in holy matrimony with Gerald Coleman in 1983, and to this union one child was born. From the beginning Juanita embraced marriage and excelled at motherhood. Juanita had such a beautiful spirit, she loved life, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. She also had a passion for traveling, recently spending time in Hawaii and Florida before her untimely death.

Juanita was all about taking care of family, and building a support system especially for her daughter and grandson. During her years of retirement, Juanita remained very active attending different social events, working the polls during City of Detroit Elections, and transporting her grandson to school and sporting events. She was known for taking pride in her neighborhood, cutting the grass of abandoned properties on her block, and beautifying her home.

Juanita was so vibrant, always smiling, and kept God first throughout her life.

Juanita departed this life suddenly on Thursday, August 31, 2017.
