“ My fondest memory of Auntie Judy is when she sat me down and gave me a book to read, which changed my life. " The Courage to Change". There was an ending to her giving. Thank you Aunt Judy. You'll never be forgotten. My condolences to my cousins and the family. Love you all. Darryl Yeager and family.

“ *You will be missed! God has blessed us as a church family and as individuals to learn from your diligence to serve Him. Always faithful. Always willing and ready to pray for ANYONE, even when you were suffering yourself. We will miss you every time we look over to your pew....4th row from the back, right side, end seat....and not see you there. And Lord knows that each of us have gained a pound or twenty (*cough*me*cough) from those Judy Clay dishes that always disappeared. My sister in Christ, I'm glad that, even if we didn't always agree, I had a chance to tell you to your face my appreciation for your ministry. I'm glad to say that I saw, even recently, Gods power revealed by your beating odds time after time. Suffering is over now.*

*Rejoice and rest in the care of God now, Judy!
-Linda Hart (Matt & Josh, too!)*
