

Mrs. Judith Anne Hagood

April 23, 1942 - July 9, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Judith Anne Hagood:

Judith Hall Hagood was born April 23, 1942 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Kermit Hall and Ethel Hall. Judith was affectionately known as “grandma Jude” or “Judy” by her family and friends.

She attended Fitts University and graduated from Chaney University receiving her Master's Degree.

She worked as a Math and Science teacher for the Detroit Public Schools and retired in 2012.

In prior years she was married to Charles Henry and later to Henry Hagood.

She loved animals and she loved to shop. Judith was devoted to her grandchildren.

Judith departed this life on July 9, 2015.

“ Mrs. Hagood was one of my fave teachers. She was always there for us like we were hers. She made sure we passed her class NO MATTER WHAT 😊 & every time i hear the song Catching Hell i remember sitting in her class playing cards & hearing that song for the first time. I cant hear that song 2day without thinking of being in her classroom. R.I.H. lovely lady.

“ First I will like to send my condolences to Mrs Hagood's family. My heart goes out to you all. Mrs Hagood was one of my favorite teachers back at Sherrill School. She was an exceptional teacher and over all person. She went above and beyond to make us not just great students, but members of society. She was not only a teacher, but a mother to most of her students. She will be missed beyond measure. God Bless.
