

Mrs. Judy Bell

September 29, 1949 - January 29, 2014

Judy Bell was born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Campbell Sr. on September 29, 1949 in Detroit, Michigan. She was one of three children born to this union. Her brother David Campbell preceded her in death. Her older brother Floyd (Sharon) resides in North Carolina.

Judy attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Northwestern High School. While attending Northwestern she met the love of her life, her husband Alvis Bell. They married in 1972 and were married for forty-one years. To this union one son was born Alvis Bell Jr. "Little Al" as he was affectionately known preceded his mother in death.

Judy was very creative. She enjoyed designing African American art. Angels and dolls were her specialty. Her work could be found in local stores. She enjoyed creative writing and collected inspirational literature. In addition, Judy and Alvis traveled extensively; they ventured to Hawaii, Aruba, Mexico and the Bahamas.
