“ To The Clark, In the Loss of your Mother Julia M. Clark

Somewhere a journey begins at the end of the worldly existence we know, Somewhere a path stretches over the stars, and rivers of memories flow; Somewhere a silence is heard far away and the brightness of day fills the night, Where the trials of life are resolved into peace when a soul finds its way to the light. May it comfort you to know that your Mother Julia M. Clark, is now at peace..

I imagine there is no worse time then the loss of a mother. Your mom, was truly one of the most Open and giving human beings I have ever met. I am so blessed that I was able to spend so mush time with her. I have learned life-long lessons through her kindness and in her memory, I will walk through life with a bigger heart. I will be there for you every day, for as long as you need me my friend. Deacon George and Missy Ellean Hunt

Mother Julia Clark was a wonderful sweet woman of God. she was an excellent cook, those rolls she made was delicious. Mother Clark, Mother Hairston, Mother Linebarger, Mother Darnell, Mother Ollie Reed, Mother Webb were the Ever Ready Sisters, they allowed me to join them and become an Ever Ready Sister as a teenager. I was also on the Pastor Aide Board with Mother Clark, Sister Ethel Hughes (AI) and the above mentioned mothers, all these women had so much wisdom and knowledge and I learned so much from them. We who knew Mother Clark will never forget her, we will cherish her memory. We loved her but God loved her more and best. Mother Clark is Sleeping in Jesus. 1Thessalonians 4:14-17. Praise God for the Godly life that she lived.
