

Mr. Julius Octavian Jackson

December 28, 1973 - December 31, 2017

On a sunny Friday morning, Julius Octavian Jackson entered this world. He departed from this life, December 31, 2017, at Beaumont Trenton hospital, at the age of 44.

Julius was born in Union City, TN, December 28th 1973, to the parents of Freddie Jackson-Thurman and Ralph F. Jackson Jr. He and his mother moved to Michigan, in 1978, at the age of 5. He graduated from Bishop Borgess High School, in 1992. Julius was born with the gift of art. He went on to have a career in graphic design, comic book illustration, and freelance web design. Julius also participated as an extra, in several top billing movies, that were produced in Michigan.

Julius was a loving son and father, and had a profound impact on his close family and friends. You were able to depend on him for honest and catered advice. He was wonderful father and grandfather to his children and granddaughter. He was an avid lover of comic books, movies, and video games. Most of all, a lover of knowledge.

Julius is survived by his mother, Freddie Jackson-Thurman; his 3 children, Briana Smith, Dorian and Jonathan Jackson; a granddaughter, Skylr Smith; a fiancée, JaLeesa Yates; a great grandfather, Ralph F. Jackson, Sr. of Illinois; an Aunt, Gloria Williams and many other aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Julius is preceded in death, by his brother, Christopher; his father, Ralph F. Jackson Jr; maternal grandparents, Adele and George Taylor; Paternal grandmother, Dorothy Jackson; an uncle, Daniel Jackson. All were located in Tennessee.

"For death begins with life's first breath and life begins at the touch of death."
by John Oxenham.

We would like to thank our family and many friends for all the love and support expressed.
