

Mrs. June Latrice Jennings

June 11, 1977 - July 13, 2013

June Latrice Jennings, was born to Christine Jennings and William Binion Jr., in Detroit, Michigan. Both parents preceded her in death.

June received her education in Detroit Public Schools. She was baptized and received Christ in her early years of life.

June was a member of a motorcycle club, the Detroit Dragons. Her AKA was "Fat Katt." Among her list of hobbies was playing Bid Whist, listening to the blues and spending time with family and friends.

June's home was always an open door to many.

Jerome Anthony (Jerry) Borski, was forever a loving father and brought structure to June's life. June's relationship with her dad was very special.

She shared a "big brother, little sister," relationship with her older brother, Bradley Binion.

Her son, Calvin Clarence Jennings, was the joy of June's life. June also took pleasure in the raising of Trena Latrice as her own, and loved her dearly.

“ Hey, June... I still remember when I moved in next door to you guys on Staheln. As soon as i met your mom I knew I had great neighbors! Then I met you. I thought you were the most mature young lady I'd ever met. You kept your mom & me In check many times when we needed it...You always let me be me .Thank you. I saw Jerry yesterday, thats how I found out about you. He looked like he needed someone to care for him. He's alone. So if Its okay with you, (and Jerry) I'd like to try....I'm gonna miss your soul, and realness....R.I.P., June.... Love, Tracie.
