“ To Pastor Garther Roberson & Family,

Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your devoted wife, attentive mother, doting grandmother, and so much more. Sis. Roberson is the epitome of the Proverbs 31 woman. A pillar of strength with wisdom beyond her years, she will always be remembered as the ultimate First Lady of Mt. Olive Baptist Church. My heart mourns your loss with you, as many others do as well; of this I am certain. Rest on much loved one, you earned it. We will meet you again on the good side!

With love and respect,

Sis. Cheryl Mayes & Daughters

“ To the Roberson. May God comfort and strengthen you at this time. My prayer is with you as I share my condolences with you. Mrs. Roberson was a very kind and gentle woman. Please know that she's now present with the Lord and absent of pain. She's rejoicing with the 4 and 20 angels and other family members and friends. Most of the time I saw her she was with Pastor Garther. She'll be missed by all of us.

“ Dear Rev Garther and Donna,

My heart was sad to hear the news about Sister Roberson. Donna I know what you are going through, but believe me God will wipe away all tears and give your heart peaceful memories of your mother. Our parents were such good friends. As dad would say, They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength. Praying for you, Rev. Garther and your brothers.

*Be blessed
