“ Connie, the Lord is your Shepherd...and you shall not want and nor shall Justin. Just keep holding on to the Lord's unchanging hands because He knows how much you can bare. Keep holding on to the promises He made and all will be well. May the Lord bless and keep your family real good.

With love and hope.

“ To the Family:

There are times along life's journey that can test the spirit deeply; though this is certainly one of those times, may you never stop believing that your faith, your inner strength, and the power of God's love will carry you through. There is no sorrow in earth that heaven cannot heal. In deepest sympathy.

“ Williams Family, you have lost someone that meant the world to you. You now see a big hole where your soul you to be. Let God step into the empty space and fill it with memories of the wonderful times you and your shared with Justin. Eventually the hole will fill, but you will always have those special moments with Justin. When we worked together, I can remember the sparkle in your eye, and the love in you voice when you spoke of Justin. My prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time. I light a candle in the memory of Justin.

“ I read this poem and thought of you Justin. You always were in good spirits and always spoke positivity no matter what the situation was at hand.. The poem is called standing tall. Despite the news, don't worry about the fall. The lord above has given you strength to stand tall. Don't be weary and you surely wont faint, with the helping hand of friends who considered you a saint. Remember to reach out in the darkness and your friends will reach back, to help you fight this unfair attack. Know that you are not alone and you have joined a new race, to fight this fight with GODS renewed grace. In the end, when your battle is won, embrace your life and begin to have fun. You are so special and important to all because we remembered you are now STANDING TALL!!! -author is unknown- We Love You Justin and may you rest in peace!! Your family is my prayers.
