“ Dearest Djenaba and Family,

We were shocked and saddened to hear about the passing of Kamamu. We were looking forward to seeing you at the Black Theatre Festival in Winston-Salem as we have since we met him at the 40th Reunion for our East Orange High School Class of 1965. Please share our condolences with your children and count on our friendship and support.

We will be keeping you in prayer.

“ To The whole Abubakari Family: It has been a pleasure meeting and enjoying the special person known when he was with us as Baba Kamamu Abubakari. He was honest, ethical, forth right, authentic, incredibly organize and quite a mentor for all African Americans.

To begin to catalog his influence in the community will be exhausting. He was an exemplary husband and father who care for his family beyond what words can describe. He was a mentor to African American young men especially those in the correctional system. They were special to him and he devoted his career to making a difference in their life. He was an African to the core. He promoted the African in him at every opportunity he got. He left a legacy of black excellence in its many definitions. May his gentle soul rest in peace.

“ We were very sorry to hear about the passing of our dear brother and friend
Damani Abubakari. He was a true and dedicated revolutionary warrior. His commitment to African people was second to none. Damani will be missed for his knowledge, wisdom, and inspiring poetry. There's an African Proverb that says a person dies in the physical sense, but their deeds and spirit will live on. There is no doubt in our mind that Kamamu Damani Abubakari's deeds and spirit will live on forever and ever as he joins the Ancestors. May God Bless Mama Djenaba and the rest of the family as they go through this transition.

Brother Abubakari was a strong, proud black man who lead by example. He was instrumental in turning around many young brothers he worked with at Wolverine Human Services and the Youth Home in Detroit. A quiet GIANT that will truly be missed but never forgotten. My brother, mentor and friend.

“ Being a member of The Afro-Centric Theatre family was a great experience. Damani was the director but he was always open to suggestions and he would let us do the character as we saw them. He would always say, "Become the person." He will be truly missed.

“ Djenaba, Gerson and I have been praying for your husband's recovery. Unfortunately the Lord had His own ideas. He needed another Angel. Your husband is now in the capable arms of our Lord and watching over you, your children and your precious grandbabies. God Bless the Abubakari Family; as you embrace a memory you will meet your loved one again.
