“ I would like to give my condolences to your family. Loosing someone in death seems so unfair and difficult to bear. It was also hard for my family and I when my loving father died. But what gave me real comfort was the Bible. Also the hope of seeing him and all those I have lost to death again in the future right here on paradise earth enjoying perfect health. Take note of God's promises Psalms 37:9-11,29 & Rev. 21:3,4.

My sister I pray that the Father will take care of the demon who took you from this world. So young and beautiful I pray that your mom, family and friends can keep you close in their hearts. I only wanted what I would want for all of my sisters and that's a life with the Father. You will be loved and missed. On behalf of my niece Camry.

“ I did not know the family, but I feel your pain. My heart breaks for all the children and this beautiful young woman. We don't understand why things happen. Please find peace with knowing God is there, even if we don't understand. I pray for all of you, and these precious lives that was taken too soon. When I lost my grandson, I did not understand why. But if you know God, you can go boldly to God and ask him to make it plain. I found peace reading his word. I still hurt and miss him. Pull from your knowledge of Christ. God bless you all. I pray for the mother. May God heal her inside and out. In Christian love, S. Bishop
