Sorry for your loss, Karen. I'm thinking of u here in Cordova, TN. May your family find comfort in The Lord.

“ I remember when you were born. Such an adorable baby. You loved cookies. Your granny would say give that baby a cookie if that's what he want. I am so sorry someone just took you away from life, just like that. But don't worry God has a plan for you in heaven. You don't ever have to worry or be sad again. IN THE ARM OF THE KING.

“ My dear Karen my coworker/friend,
I am so saddened to hear of this tragic news. I have been out on medical leave for 2 weeks and just read this today. I know words and thoughts cannot touch the deepest pain of losing a child, but please know you and your family are in my prayers and thoughts. May you find comfort in each other and reach out to me if you need anything.

Sincerely,
Donna Ford

“ Dear Wimes, I am so sorry for your loss. I would just like to leave you with a brief encouraging message from the bible found at 1 corinthians 15:26 where it says, "And the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." May God's word bring you comfort in this difficult time. (Psalms 55:22)
