

Mrs. Kathryn L. Miller

September 7, 1920 - June 21, 2013

Katherine Miller was born on September 7, 1920 in Abbeville, South Carolina to James and Emma Murray, she was the youngest of her siblings, two brothers and two sisters all of whom preceded her in death. Katherine moved to Detroit, Michigan in 1940 and found the love of her life, Shedwrick Miller. They were married on December 27, 1940. This union produced three children.

She lived her Christian faith daily. She loved reading her bible and was always singing or humming hymns and songs of praise. Throughout her lifetime she was a member of the A.M.E. Church.

Katherine had many hobbies. She became a professional seamstress, making stylish one of a kind apparel. She also was a milliner (Fine Hats). She was known for her uniqueness and creativity for stylish fashion. Cooking for family and friends was her joy. Her forte was baking, making delicious pies, cakes and rolls. She enjoyed cake decorating. She was especially known for her Pound Cake! She had a passion for Butterfinger candy and would eat a bag in one sitting.

In 1985 she became ill with dementia and her husband retired from being a pastor to become her caregiver. She spent countless days on her back deck where you could “always” hear her say, “Food tastes better in the fresh air.” She lived and enjoyed life to the fullest even in sickness. She departed this earthly life on Friday, June 21 at 6:30 P.M. after a visit from her daughter and a dear neighbor. She was sweet, gentle and kind, a loving wife, mother and a friend to all who knew her.

“ You will be forever in my heart.

April Whynot - June 28, 2013 at 12:12 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Imagine a day when death will be no more and you'll be able to see your loved ones that have passed. (Revelation 21:4; John 5:28, 29) These two scriptures help me cope with the death of a loved one and I pray that it does the same for you.
