

Mr. Kelvin Gerald Hinson Sr.

March 17, 1964 - May 21, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Kelvin Hinson Sr. was born on March 17, 1964, in Detroit, Michigan to the marital union of Cleo and Lillie Brown-Hinson. Despite the devastating loss of his father at the early age of 7, Kelvin prosed victoriously through life and was educated through the Detroit Public Schools system. Kelvin accepted Christ into his life at an exceedingly early age, he always trusted in God and stepped out on faith daily in life.

Kelvin was a true outdoorsman. Anyone that knew Kelvin knew come summertime you could always find him out on his boat enjoying the water relaxing catching fish. He finally found a true fishing buddy "Shorty" he was always willing and ready to hit the water as much as Kelvin. He also loved hunting and grilling on one of his many BBQ grills. He used to enjoy auto repair and building of engines with Fred and Pat. The passion Kelvin had for auto repair led him to becoming an auto parts driver for Automotive Replacement Parts. He also worked for Kenosha.

Later in life he became a car hauler for Cassens Transport Inc. His daily travels led him from the US to Canada hauling cars and trucks on the Iron Horse as he called it, Kelvin was one of the many "Kings of the Road." Kelvin also enjoyed entertaining family and friends at their home. Kelvin knew so many friends from the neighborhood growing up and plenty people he became acquainted with.

They would always call him by one of his nicknames, "Gerb, Chumley" or by all the nieces and nephews “Uncle Gerald.”

On August 18, 1988, Kelvin married the love of his life and soulmate, Yvette Johnson. To this union 3 children were born, Kelvin Gerald Hinson Jr., Korey Bryce Hinson and Kleo Kane Hinson.

On May 21, 2021 Kelvin kept his faith in God and the angels ushered him into Glory.
