“ I just found out about your passing, Kenneth, and I am speechless. I am so sorry that I didn't know. I even reached out to you on Facebook on your birthday. Three months later, you were gone, and I had no idea.

I know you were a believer in God and walked in faith, so I know you are in good hands with our Father—walking in a beautiful garden of love and peace, no longer connected to this world filled with turmoil, evil, and sadness.

You will definitely be missed. I will always remember the beautiful stories you shared. You were a wonderful father, and one thing that always stood out to me was how you taught your sons that it's okay to say “I love you.” So many men feel awkward saying those words because they can't give what they never received—but you gave that freely.

You and I spoke about so much, and I am truly grateful that we remained friends for over 20 years. Even though we didn't talk often or see each other much in later years, we stayed connected on Facebook. I appreciate the stories, the laughter, the debates—and yes, the arguments 😂. Man... LOL... you even gave me your “monster,” the computer you built back in the day. Do you know how blessed I felt to have that thing? LOL. Mr. Smooth, P.C.

You will truly be missed, my friend. I know you are surrounded by family who preceded you in this transition. Enjoy the reunion. Rest easy.

My condolences to your entire family. They have lost the patriarch—the rock and the glue of the family. I know your wife will miss you tremendously, and I pray for healing, comfort, and peace for her and for your entire family.

*I love you always, my dear friend.
Peace and love—forever. ☐*

“ I just wanted to say how much it meant to me that we spent time with ralph, ladon and myself reminiscing about family stories. Each memory you shared helped bring the past to life, and I'm grateful for the gift of reconnecting—not just to our history, but to each other. Thank you kenneth. Love cousin Shelia

“ Words cannot express my sadness to hear of Kenneth's passing. Prayers of strength, comfort and peace to his wife, Pam and his Sons! Ken willingly spoke of God's continued Goodness in his life and often shared his beliefs in His Lord and Savior Jesus Christ with all who wanted to know! Rest in the arms of Your Savior~ Until we meet again for all eternity! God said it and We believe it ❤️ 100
