February 21, 1965 - October 4, 2018

His Story:

Kenneth Theodore Cardwell was born on February 21, 1965, in Detroit Michigan and passed away on October 4, 2018.

Kenny had one child, his son, Kenneth D. Lyons. He attended school in Detroit and was very proud of having completed a program at Randolph Technical School, which qualified him as an electrician.

Kenny Boo, as he was affectionately known, spent most of his working life at The House of Blinds in Pontiac. He had accepted Christ in 1990, and was a faithful member of Greater Christ Church in Ferndale. He truly enjoyed reading his bible, attending Church and sharing the Word of God.

His favorite time of the year was the holidays, because he knew his sister Nicole was cooking. His brother and his sister were his favorite cooks, and eating was his passion.

He loved hanging out with his brother Alex, who was his favorite comedian.

“ Life

*Yet a short time in this existence
It is the experiences and memories we leave
The love we carry
For we are but children in the world
And lamb of the word*

*Yes shortcomings abound we know we are not perfect
A blemish of scars may tatter our past
We know we all will meet this day
Our hope is that we leave our world a better place than before we came
Kenny lived without worry his faith was strong and shared and rest he will
And his name will ensure he lives with us all Forever*

Love ya Kenny Boo

“ Ken was a good person and a friend who loved God! He fought a good fight with the odds against him. My condolences to the family especially to mother who "always loves her children". Would be there if at all possible. Be encouraged the struggle here is over now.

*Respectfully submitted,
Elder Donald Lowrance*
