

Mr. Kenneth Lee Hooker

April 7, 1954 - September 28, 2018

Kenneth's Journey:

Kenneth Lee Hooker was born on April 7, 1954 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Kinnie and Vera Hooker. He was the youngest of three children. He was preceded in death by his oldest sister, Gwendolyn Jackson.

Kenneth, affectionately known as "Joe" received his education through the Detroit Public Schools system, graduating from Cody High School then later furthering his education at the Michigan Barber School in Detroit where he obtained his Master Barber's License.

Joe was employed at the Visible Change Barber Shop for 30 plus years until his health prevented him from working any longer. After retirement, he kept a personal relationship with his former co-workers and clients rather by frequent visits to the shop or by phone.

Joe enjoyed watching sports, especially football, basketball, baseball, eating, and spending time with his family and friends.

Kenneth departed this life on Friday, September 28, 2018.
