“ To The Wright Family,

We extend our deepest sympathy. May God wrap you in His love and console your heart.

Rest in peace my roping buddy.

Say hello to all the Cowboys in Heaven.

You were a good Horsemen and a good Roper.

Thanks for everything.

“ The pain endured cannot be relieved, the loss can never be replaced, the memories can never be cast away; but with some amount of compassion, thoughtfulness, gentle words, one can surely help ease the pain for us all. Our condolence, from the Ross family, will help remind us all, that although death separates us from one another in body, in spirit, Kenneth (Kenny) will always remain alive in our hearts and mind. Alive through his kind words often said to each of us, the caring deeds he done for us, the lesson(s) that he taught us, and the example that he was to us. Let us remember him in our prayers, in our fond memories, in our everyday actions, so that remembrance bring joy, not tears
