“ Kerry was my daughters Goddaddy, he would come over and stand on the side of her baby bed, and say you want to go see Peteboy(the dog), and she would kick her legs. I think that made his day.

“ I still can't believe you're gone, when I heard the news I couldn't breathe. I'm having a hard time wrapping my head around this. You were a big part of my childhood growing up and I wanted you to be a part of my kids lives too. It just makes me sad and empty because you're not here and I really wanted you to be at my boot camp graduation. I remember my dad would take me to visit you and Aunt Rena (RIP) off of the house on Main St. in LA. We'd come in I'd go to your room and give auntie a kiss on the cheek and a hug and I'd give you a hug and run off to find my cousins. I loved coming over. I'll always cherish the memories we had together. Whenever my dad didn't give me what I wanted or asked for I'd call you (no I'm not spoiled or a brat lol) you'd say "Baby want me to beat him up for you" or "Kevin get that girl what she want or askin for, that's yo daughter right" lol. You were so funny and seriously the coolest uncle ever. I remember when you came to my champagne party with Kerriaun in 2014. It meant a lot to me because my dad wasn't there but you and my cousin were able to make it. You was joking around and all and I'm gonna miss you so much. I love you uncle- your favorite niece Kenya Zanders
