“ It is always hard when one of our own departs us! Kevin was a warm and thoughtful friend! I was his girlfriend 40 yrs. ago! He charmed me with their toy poodle and lured me to his heart. I remember how much he loved that dog! We would often laugh about our short affair and how I broke up with him because he tried to boss me around! LOL! Then he had a bad car accident and recovered! I would tease him and tell him God wasn't ready for him yet we would laugh and he would reply " I wasn't ready for him either but one day he'll be back baby and I'll be ready then" well I guess you were ready Kevin this time you didn't come back!! I will miss your contagious smile and those big round eyes but I will never forget how you cared for others. Go ahead be with your sister, brother, granddad, and mom you been through a lot down here you deserve eternal peace! Rest in it Kevin. Love always Terri (Brown) Hutcherson

“ As I call each neighbor to give them the final arrangement information for Kevin I am touched by stories of how he helped each one. He looked out for most of us on the block. On garbage day, he would take each neighbors garbage container from the street and put it up near their house or in their back yard. Sometimes on snowing days, he would borrow a neighbors snow blower and walk up and down the block shoveling snow. He would give you a hand if you needed help, like he helped me in the spring taking my patio furniture out of the garage and putting it back for me in the fall. He did so many nice things for so many of his neighbors. He kept my lawn cut and looking nice. He would even cut the lawn at the vacant house or our block. Everyone knew him and he spoke to everybody that was walking up or down the street. He loved good food, good music and pretty ladies and he always complimented you when you looked nice. We are all going to miss Kevin very much.
