Kim Frances Davis was born on April 19, 1959 in Detroit, Michigan to Conrad Lee Davis and Mamie Wilson Davis. Kim accepted Christ at an early age. She attended Murray Wright High School of Detroit Public Schools and was an avid reader. She graduated in 1977.

She met her childhood sweetheart Stephen Speights when she was 14 years old. They had their first child Laneisha Shawana Speights in 1976 and they married on November 8, 1980. Kim and Stephen Speights had two more children from their union Candice Elaina and Stephen William. They were married for 39 years before he preceded her in death.

She attended Wayne County Community College and studied nursing. She completed her degree in 1989. She worked at multiple hospitals in the trauma or neurosurgery units. She worked at DMC Harper University Hospital right after graduation and most recently she worked for Corewell (Beaumont) Hospital. She loved being a nurse. She loved helping people and bringing joy. She was a hard worker, she was empathetic, caring, loving and a giving person. She loved spending time with her family, and she loved having fun! “ "Auntie" Kim I'm going to miss working with you!! You were my girl, and I loved working nights with you. When I first started calling you Auntie you weren't too sure of it but it eventually grew on you and now the whole 7south calls you that! I'm glad to have met you and knew that you trusted my help even though you were the experienced nurse. I pray you are at peace finally flying high with your husband and daughter again in Heaven. May God give your family strength during this difficult time and know that you will be truly missed.

“ It deeply saddened me to hear of Kim's passing. I had the pleasure of working with Kim for several years. From the first time we meet at work we made a connection. She was a great nurse and an awesome coworker. I will miss our short conversations in-between report. Rest in peace my friend. My deepest condolences to the family.
