

Ms. Kimberly Chemika Redmond

February 17, 1971 - January 9, 2025

Kimberly Chemika Redmond was born February 17, 1971, in Detroit, Michigan, to Pearline Williams and Glyce Redmond. Kimberly was raised in Northwest Detroit, and attended Detroit Public Schools, she graduated from Redford High School with honors.

Kimberly was a loving mother of 5 children to the best of her ability. Kimberly was a kindhearted person; she will give you the shirt off her back. Kimberly was a go getter and a money maker. She loved her job as a server, and because of her people skills it made the job easier, and if you ever been out to eat with her, she will not hesitate to let you know that she was the best at it (Serving). Kimberly was an outspoken woman, she will tell it how it is and think about it later.

Kimberly was a caregiver to her family and others; she came in this world giving and she left here giving her all. Kimberly was a strong woman who just missed her mother and son, and she was a force to reckon with.

Kimberly is preceded in death by Mother Pearline Williams, Father Glyce Redmond, Sister Vearline Lewis, Brothers Micheal Lewis, Gary Lewis, and Glyce Redmond Jr.

Kimberly is survived by children, Ashley Thomas, Gabrielle Evans, Ashonda Lloyd (Terry Lloyd) Lorenzo Horton II; Grandchildren Saiyon, Da'Shawn, Justine, Jerel, Terrion, Cameron, and Hannah; Great Grandchild Akon; Sisters Gail and Gay; along with family and friends whose lives she touched.
