“ Our prayers go to Kenny and Jeremiah for not only losing a mom but in most cases your best friend. Our families go back so many years, we were there for the ups and downs. your mom and my kids mom were thick as thieves, now both Eva and Kim are catching up on old time and some new ones too. We know that at this moment the only one that can see you through and get you over the wall of hurt is God. Trust in him for he will never let you down and never leave you even in your time of sorrow.

Love always and remember we are here for you both,

Gregory Sr, Gregory Jr. Brittney, and Bianca Johnson.

“ My condolences to the Baker / Waldon family. Kenny and Jeremiah, I know for sure your mom loved her boys tremendously!!!!

Kimberly and I had an amazing time as coworkers (McKesson). We became friends and sisters there. Our first meeting, I knew she was a star. We have shared so many laughs over the years (more than I can count). Her and I would laugh at the story of her when she was pregnant with Jeremiah. She went to the lunch room to heat up her food and returned singing / dancing (as usual). She came upon her desk and slipped on the clear mat that was underneath her chair. Upon slipping to the ground, she knocked me and my chair under my desk. I was on the phone with a customer and got the wind knocked out of me. Kim and I laughed so hard we both were crying and laughing at her craziness! :) (I laughed now writing this story!) She was much taller than me so she would laugh at how my head was squished under the desk. From that day on she never allowed anyone to put a clear mat under her chair. Oh the fun we had. She loved my Egg Custard pies. I would make a pie for during the Thanksgiving & Christmas season yearly. I am going to miss Kim...her smile, her eyes, her love, her laugh! Farewell my friend. I am honored to have known you and will miss you. RIP (Love your Little Big Sister, Mel)
