“ Hello to my dearest sister, Mary Jane, and your children, Kapathia and Little King! I was saddened to hear of my brother-in-law's passing but I know that God was with him as he is with you and your children. Look to Him (God) from which cometh all of your help in your time of need. I love you! Your baby sister, Virginia Andrews Hill

Mary & Family! May God give you Peace I remember King singing from his heart in Church & I was looking back thinking it was someone else. I remember when King & Mary drove his red race car (Ford King Cobra) to Louisiana, I had the opportunity to ride in it, that was the fastest scariest ride I ever had in my life. He was a passionate race car driver. King could tell you all about the World News. I never heard King complain. King was a family man. He will be missed by all.....Sister-in-law. Martha A. Kendrix
