

Kisha Denise Mays

December 22, 1972 - November 26, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:
Kisha Denise Mays

Kisha Denise Mays was born on December 22, 1972. She was the fourth child of Artist and Fred Mays, Jr. She went home just before Christmas in a little red onesie and a Santa hat.

Kisha was baptized at the age of 12 by Rev. Dr. Cornell E. Talley of New Light Baptist Church. She was also part of the Young Adult Choir.

Kisha graduated as a Cooley Cardinal and later went on to Michigan State University where she obtained her Bachelor of Science degree.

On June 16, 1999, Kisha was blessed with a baby boy, Phillip Edmonds, II (better know as PJ) who was the joy of her life.

Kisha's love for children lead her to The Judson Center and Spectrum Child and Family Services where she worked as a Social Worker for many years. After giving her all to the families she served Kisha went on to become an entrepreneur.

Kisha partnered with her Fiancé, Robert Oliver and together started their own cleaning business known as The Kleaning People.

Kisha was most fond of listening to gospel music, fishing, boating, baking, traveling, and spending time with her family and friends.

Kisha was preceded in death by her Father Fred Mays, Jr., one sister Kellí Talbert, Grandparents: Helen and Fred Mays, Sr., Abbie and Jesse Tomlinson.

Kisha leaves to cherish her memory a loving devoted Son, Phillip Edmonds, Mother, Artist Mays, Fiancé, Robert Oliver, one Sister, Melanie Lomax (Kevin), four brothers, Eric Mays, Derrick Mays (Schancey), Anthony and Timothy Talbert and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Family is requesting mask be worn during the visitation and services.
