“ To Apostle Mathews and the family;

Know that we in Slidell, LA are praying for you during this season of bereavement. God is yet faithful, Apostle and you are a soldier. So when you are weak you know how to lean on the Lord for He is your strength.

*Much Love,
Vicar Jenette B. Stokes & the El Shaddi United Ministries Church

“ My husband Al & I were so very blessed to be able to see and share with Uncle & Sonya on Tuesday, November 20th! When I told him we were coming I asked him to "wait for us" that I needed to see his "eyes". He was in great spirits and talked with us...recognized me as I relayed my Father's (his oldest brother Jesse Jr.) message that "when he looked into my eyes know that they were his eyes"... That made him smile! Al & I actually think that Uncle may have thought he (Al) was actually my Dad 'cause he was wearing overalls and looked kinda like him as he's (Daddy) been wearing them for decades! I will always remember his laugh and his sweet bread! Such a happy kackle...just like Grand Ma Mattie.

Prayers and condolences to the family but please take comfort on knowing that he is now resting with our Savior and is no longer suffering.

Always & with much Love,

Jessica, Al & Channing Mathews-Randall
