

Ms. La'Shaunte Shanal Brown

May 23, 1979 - February 26, 2015

In Remembrance Of Our Beloved La'Shaunte Shanal Brown:

La'Shaunte Shanal Brown 35, of Detroit, Michigan. La'Shaunte became a born again Christian under the leadership of Pastor George Watson of The Old Landmark Church in Westland, MI. After a courageous one year battle with cancer, La'Shaunte passed away and found eternal life February 26, 2015, with her family by her side.

La'Shaunte was born to the proud parents of Peggy Brown and Kevin Leaverson. La'Shaunte graduated from Northwestern High School in 1997 and received a certificate for Nursing Assistant from Health Care Solutions. She went on to study two years of Criminal Justice at the University of Phoenix and earned an associate in Fashion Design from International Academy of Designs and Technology.

Her greatest aspiration was to become a fashion designer. For many years she made and sold clothes to women in Michigan. One of the things she definitely loved to do other than making clothes was dancing. La'Shaunte learned most of her dance talent from the modern dance company Freedom Ink in the late 90's traveling from state to state winning competitions. She also loved to crochet, paint, shop, and spend lots of time with her children, friends and family.

La'Shaunte touched the lives of many people with her big beautiful smile and generosity.

She will be remembered by a loving host of friends and family and will be deeply missed.
