

Mrs. LaDawn Sharnell Martin

August 19, 1967 - May 16, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of LaDawn Sharnell Martin:

LaDawn Sharnell Martin was born on August 19, 1967 at Sinai Hospital in Detroit, Michigan to Bernese Cobb, Sr. and Luvenia Tippet. She was a very courageous woman. She never treated people like strangers. LaDawn was a very loving and down to earth wife, mother, daughter, sister, aunt and friend. She made you feel welcomed and loved. She went after whatever she wanted. She had a big beautiful heart. She embraced life to the fullest, and can't was never in her vocabulary. The sky was the limit for her. She always thought outside the box and made things happen for herself and her family. She rarely said no to anyone. She was a very soulful woman who sung her heart out no matter the place or time. LaDawn was high spirited and she impacted so many people's lives with her charismatic charm and joyous spirit.

LaDawn started work at a very early age. She served 27 years as a 911 Operator for the City of Detroit. She was three years away from retirement.

She was joined in holy matrimony with Anthony Martin for 28 years. Within those years they had 2 children.

Her children LaShawn and Anthony Martin, Jr. were her pride and joy. She sacrificed for them and even rescued her son out of a burning apartment. No matter how many hard times she had she always saw a better outcome. Her daughter took over her Fashionista ways and makeup skills. She will forever be in our hearts.

LaDawn departed this world on May 16, 2016.

“ My sympathy to the family. When some one we love dies the pain and grief can be unbearable. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief that can result from the death of a loved one. May you draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you.-Psalms 55:22
