To the family and friends of the queen b , the entire family has been to my house and I got to learn and know the family,we met in middle school and have been friends since, music is a healer and I love to sing and has been blessed through my voice but she also loved to sing so we met in music class and I would have singing sections in My home and she would be the number one person to start and she say Terence your not going to join me and I would jump right into key because she knew notes and range you have to blend in is what she would say and many more people join in Kia jelks and Catrina and tajuana most memorable moments and I will miss her deeply and keep the faith because she loved her family and friends and she showed it,a friend sticks closer than a brother..
