

Ms. LaKisha Maie Henry

September 18, 1980 - May 7, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of LaKisha Maie Henry:

LaKisha Marie Henry was born September 18, 1980 to David and Kim Henry in Detroit, Michigan.

LaKisha was christened by the late Dr. James A. Caldwell, she accepted Christ at the age of seven where she was baptized at Burnette Baptist Church/Greater Burnette Church.

LaKisha attended Thomas M. Cooley High School. She graduated in 1998 with honors. Lakisha was offered a scholarship to attend Michigan State.

LaKisha graduated from N.I.T. with her Massage Therapist Certification in 2004.

Over the years, LaKisha worked for Blue Cross/Blue Shield, the United Post Office, Parker Distribution and most recently on Friday, May 6, 2016, she had accepted a position with (GM) General Motors, test driving vehicles. Her starting date would have been Monday, May 9, 2016.

LaKisha volunteered for many years at Fiberglass Estate Community Hall's Food Sharing Program and the Toys for Tots Program.

On July 13, 2000, the Lord blessed LaKisha Henry and LaDon Gordon with a beautiful baby girl, Leslie Marie Gordon.

LaKisha was a very loving daughter and an exceptional mother. She loved to laugh, have fun and be around her family. Kisha loved her Mickey Mouse and her doll Carnita whom she has had for 34 years, LaKisha was a very colorful natured person, she was our Punkie Brewster.

LaKisha always said to Leslie, be yourself, set goals and achieve them and to continue her education. Don't be a follower – be a leader. Life is too short, tomorrow is not promised to no one, enjoy life one day at a time...have fun...but keep your head in the books.

On Saturday, May 7, 2016, sometime during the afternoon hours, God reached down and scooped up his child after loaning her to us for 35 years.
